

California National Organization for Women

428 J Street, Suite 280 Sacramento, CA 95814

916-442-3414 Fax: 916-442-4765 www.canow.org

For Immediate Release

March 31, 2008

Contact: Rachel Allen 415.302.0159 prdir@canow.org

WOMEN'S GROUP HOSTS SUPERSTAR FEMINISTS AT CONFERENCE
CALIFORNIA NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR WOMEN BRINGS "WOMEN IN THE PUBLIC EYE"
TO HOLLYWOOD EVENT

The state's largest women's group, the California National Organization for Women (CA NOW), will hold a conference, "Women in the Public Eye," at the West Hollywood Hyatt, in West Hollywood, on April 19, 2008.

Presenters will include singer Helen Reddy, writer Jill Soloway, and lunch at Justin Timberlake's Chi Restaurant with blogger Jessica Valenti. Each of CA NOW's issues committees will host forums with outstanding women working on that issue. These include: Vicky Barker, the legal Director of the California Women's Law Center; Ausma Kahn, editor of Muslim Girl Magazine; Mary Hunt, author of In Women We Trust; Kimberly Pinkson, founder of the Ecomom Alliance; Candis Cayne, star of ABC's "Dirty Sexy Money"; Nina Hartley, renown porn star; Susan Davis, producer of "The Invisible Women"; Frances Fisher, film actress and member of the Peace Alliance. Other speakers include Kimberly Danek Pinkson, of Eco Mom Alliance; Vicky Barkley, director of the Women's Law Center speaking on Athletic Equity; Angela Robinson, from "The L-Word," Alexandra Billings, from "Grey's Anatomy" and "ER," Peter Mensah, actor and humanitarian; Robyn Ritter Simon, president of the NWPC-LA Westside caucus; and Veronique Vial, photographer for Cirque de Soleil.

OBJECT, a feminist conversational group, will host a "Lady Party" at the Viper Room on Sunset Boulevard, with singer-songwriter Nellie McKay on Saturday night.

Local politicians will participate and the event is open to the public on a sliding scale. To register and for more information go to canow.org or call 916-442-3414 x101

###