

MEDIA ALERT

May 11, 2023

California NOW to Host Bridging the Gaps, State Conference on Saturday, May 20 at 10 AM – RSVP to Attend

PASADENA, CA. — On Saturday, May 20, at 10 AM, the California National Organization for Women (NOW) will host its annual state conference. City of West Hollywood is a co-host. The collaborative event will feature feminist activists, leaders, workshops, and a day-of action. While California NOW focuses on six core intersectional issues, this conference will include discussions on housing inequity, abortion access, and the ERA.

WHAT: NOW's Feminist State of the Union

WHEN: Thursday, April 27, 2023, 7 PM EDT

WHERE: West Hollywood Aquatics & Recreation Center

WHO:

Speakers include:

- Emiliana Guereca, Women's March
- Laura Archuleta, Jamboree Housing
- Jamie Kennerk, Planned Parenthood LA
- Onyemma Obiekea, Black Women for Wellness

Confirmed Organizations include:

- City of West Hollywood, Women's Advisory Board
- FPA Women's Health
- Planned Parenthood
- Riverside County NOW
- San Gabriel Valley NOW
- Hollywood NOW
- Dare2Empower
- Empowher LA
- GenZ Immigration Reform Alliance
- Ascencia

###

Contact: Camerina S. Davidson, president@canow.org